Dear Urban Bratz customer,

Beginning February 2009, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) adopted a new product safety law. All manufacturers must conduct a testing of lead content in substrates.

To meet with the new law, Urban Bratz supplier's conducted testing and monitoring of all of the garments that we sell. We have received the report that all of our supplier's merchandise met the U.S. Consumer Product Safety (CPSC); that no harmful chemicals or materials content were used in the manufacturing process.

Our supplier's merchandise was tested through TUV Rheinland, one of the U.S. approved laboratory testing facilities in Asia for lead content. Numerous tests were conducted to assure and maintain the high level of safety for Urban Bratz merchandise and for the safety of our consumer as well.

This letter is to assure your satisfaction and Urban Bratz proudly guarantees that our products produced by (manufacturer K-V Collections, INC) have met the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) requirements.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Heather Daniels
President
